Response to Amendment

Applicant's amendment dated 004/01/2002 has been received and entered.

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 19-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tanaka et al., US Patent No. 5,900,852, in view of Okada et al., US Patent No. 5,532,713

Regarding claims 19-24, Tanaka et al. disclose a method of driving a liquid crystal shutter comprising the step of setting a scan term for driving pixel electrodes, such that the scan term is shorter than holding time (see figure 2). However, Tanaka et al. do not disclose a reset term during which all the pixel electrodes closed by applying voltage to the pixel electrodes before the scan term. Okada et al. do disclose a reset term (e.g., clear pulse) can be set before a scan term (e.g., selection pulse) (see figure 9). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to set a reset term during which all the pixel electrodes closed by applying voltage to the pixel electrodes before the scan term as shown by Okada et al. in order to reset the display states of all pixels (see col. 8, lines 5-8).

It should be noted, regarding the above claims, it has been held that to be entitled to weight in method claims, the recited structure limitations therein must affect the method in a manipulative sense, and not to amount to the mere claiming of a use of a particular structure. Ex parte Pfeiffer, 1962 CD 408 (1961).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Hartmann et al. (US 5,047,758) disclose a method of driving a liquid crystal display device having a blanking pulse (i.e., reset term) (see figures 6-9).

Inaba et al. (US 5,521,727) disclose a method of driving a liquid crystal display device in which a reset pulse is set prior to a writing pulse (i.e, scan term).

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
